

Altrusa International, Inc. of Lawrence, Kansas
Woman's Scholarship Award – 2012
Undergraduate/Trade/Technical

Altrusa International, Inc. of Lawrence, Kansas, is an organization of business and professional women who are committed to community service. Scholarships are awarded to assist women in achieving their career goals and financial independence. Special consideration is given to career re-entry and late career entry candidates. Since the purpose of the scholarship is to assist women in achieving educational goals, the funds may be used for books, tuition, transportation, and/or childcare.

A scholarship in the amount of $500 will be awarded to the selected candidate at an Altrusa meeting in May 2012.

To qualify for this scholarship, you must:

- Be enrolled in or accepted by an academic or career training program
- Be working toward a career goal
- Demonstrate financial need
- Be recommended by an instructor/faculty member
- Reside in Lawrence or Douglas County

Your application materials must be postmarked by March 31, 2012. Return the completed application, along with:

- 1) a letter explaining why you think you should be considered for the scholarship; and
- 2) a letter of recommendation from an instructor or faculty member.

You may contact Rachel Rademacher at 785-865-5308, rerademacher@gmail.com if you have questions.
